

Jenny Yoder

serving in Santa Rita, Honduras

Dear Friend,

I am so excited to share that I have the opportunity to serve in Santa Rita, Honduras, at Hope Christian Academy and Iglesia Bautista Esperanza. I'll be working alongside LeRoy and Amber Rolston in their ministry and will assist by teaching at the school and helping in various church ministries and outreaches.

TESTIMONY

When I was four years old, my school teacher asked the class questions about salvation. I realized that I needed to be saved and prayed right there in my seat. Since other kids had a parent or teacher pray with them and I didn't, I struggled with assurance of salvation for several years. But as I began reading my Bible more and listening to chapel messages in high school, I understood that there isn't a specific prayer to ask Jesus into your heart. What matters is your heart behind your prayer, the understanding that there's nothing you can do to save yourself and asking Jesus to forgive your sins, come into your heart, and save you.

CALLING

In high school, I knew God was calling me into graphic design. Throughout college, I heard sermons where the preacher said that graphic designers were needed on the mission field, and I knew that no matter what, I wanted to be a part of that. At the time, I thought that I'd help from the States with some visits here and there. During college, I had the opportunity to work in several children's ministries, and I always loved those times of working with kids. After college, I joined staff at PCC, but I knew I wanted to be involved with kids more than just once a week. Last year, the Lord started showing me some possibilities. I met the Rolstons at my church's Missions Conference last fall, and when I went to Honduras to visit their ministry, I loved my time there, and I knew that's where I should go. It was as though He was lighting the path one step at a time.

REQUESTS

First, and most importantly, please pray for safety and effective ministry for our team and for my financial support to come in. Please also pray that the Lord will provide one more kindergarten teacher for the coming school year. Second, I will need to raise $1,000 per month to help pay for living expenses for the next two years. If you are able to support me financially, I would greatly appreciate it. You can donate online or send a check to: Heartland Baptist Missions, 7000 Pensacola Blvd, Pensacola, FL 32505. Finally, if you would like to receive email updates during my time in Honduras, please email me at jennyyodermissions@gmail.com, and I will add you to my mailing list. Thank you for your prayers and support.

Jenny Yoder

My mission is to teach children, support the ministry, and lead lost children to Christ.

To support me financially, please scan the QR code.

