Pr. Ever Sadres

Dear brothers and sisters,

With every month that goes by I am filled with joy and peace to know that being in the path of God assures us that we a great future awaiting us. This is because even in the small failures of our lives, we know that God is faithful in every step that we take.

“ Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.” James 1:3-4

The purpose of my letter is to let you know that in the midst of blessings the enemy wants to see us fall. Lately we have had some families that are struggling and going through various tests. Our church in Roatan is made up of families that serve and love God. We have faithful brothers that have the desire to obey the Lord with their lives- when we see the results of their actions and their daily walk, it gives us the certainty that we are investing our time in service of God.

I am very happy that not only do I work in the church as the assistant pastor, but I also work as a teacher in the Solid Rock bilingual Christian school preparing boys and girls not only in academic study, but also in their spiritual lives. People recognize that in this school the Word of God is taught and that through this ministry families can be reached by the Gospel.

The pastor has given me the privilege to continue with teaching adult Sunday school where we have studied topics regarding families such as: the 7 columns of the home, how to win the will of the family, respect, the parent's duty, the children's duty, etc.

We continue always go soulwinning, and we also have activities that involve our brothers and sisters in Christ including discipleship. One day we will see the long-term results of these activities.

Prayers requests:

1. Pray for my family, they are going through a difficult situation. Pray that God will help us stay firm.
2. For my fiancé and I, as we have a short time left before we get married.
3. For the spiritual lives of the families of the church.
4. For souls to be saved and baptized.
5. Also, for the school, that God continues giving the strength to lead the children.

Thank you for having a part in my life. May God bless each of you in a great way. Something that I will never deny is that your prayers have helped me to continue forward- that every day I wake up I know that there are people that pray daily for me. May we never tire of praying for one another, of bringing our requests to God.

With great pleasure I say goodbye, your brother in Christ,

Moises Escobar.
